

Thankfulness

As the old saying goes, "I preaching to the choir" when it comes to the topic of thankfulness. Christians are grateful people. We realize that in Christ we have been abundantly blessed by God. As we think about all that we have been given, both materially and spiritually may we grow to appreciate the following passages even more (emphasis mine).

(Col. 3:15) And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body; and be thankful.

(Col. 3:17) And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father.

(1Cor. 15:56-57) The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law; [57] but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(2Cor. 2:14) But thanks be to God, who always leads us in His triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place.

(Heb. 13:15) Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name.

No matter the season, it is always a good time to give thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift (Jas. 1:17).

See you Sunday! -gls
