

I Am a Soldier

I am a soldier in the army of God. Jesus is my commanding officer. The Bible is my code of conduct. I am a volunteer in this army, and I am enlisted for eternity. I will either retire in this army at the Lord's return or die in this army, but I will not get out sell out be talked out or pushed out. I am a soldier.

I am a soldier. I am not a baby. I do not need to be pampered, petted, pumped up, or picked up. I am a soldier.

No one has to call me, remind me, write me, visit me, entice me, or lure me. I am a soldier.

No one has to send me flowers, gifts, food, cards, candy, or give me handouts. I am a soldier.

I do not need to be cuddled, cradled, cared for, or catered to. I am committed. I am a soldier.

I cannot have my feelings hurt bad enough to turn me around. I cannot be discouraged enough to turn me aside. I cannot lose enough to cause me to quit. I am a soldier.

When Jesus called me into this army, I had nothing. If I end up with nothing, I will still come out ahead. I will win! "You therefore must endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier" (2Tim. 2:3-4).
