

What a wonderful tradition we have in our country--to set aside a day to honor our Mothers. Here is why I am thankful for my mother and all the good moms around the world.

Good mothers see to it that their children are:

1. Comforted by the fact that they are unconditionally loved.
2. Aware that no matter what happens she will be there for them.
3. Properly dressed and feed.
4. Are on time to school, Bible class, and worship.
5. Spending proper time on homework.
6. Are getting enough sleep.
7. Showing the proper respect to other people.
8. Properly handling their money.
9. Keeping their room clean.
10. Helping with the various chores around the house.
11. Balancing sports, school, church, and family activities.
12. Saying the things they should to encourage others.
13. Not saying the things that offend and hurt others.
14. Setting goals for the future.
15. Saying their prayers every night before bed.
16. Not spending too much time on the telephone.
17. Getting along with their other brothers and sisters.
18. Supportive of their father.
19. Learning what is truly important in life and what is not.
20. Aware of the seriousness of sin.
21. Coming to know and love God.
22. Learning obedience to Christ and His word.

See you Sunday!
