

There is probably nothing more frustrating than knowing what you want to do, having the ability to do it, and then having to wait to get it done. In other words, we hate to wait! Lines seem to be a "necessary evil" in life. The old adage is still true, "hurry up and wait." Our impatience screams--"I hate to wait!" I

But waiting has its benefits. Notice the following Scriptures and remember them the next time you get stuck waiting in line (bold emphasis is mine).

(Psa 25:3) Indeed, none of those who wait for Thee will be ashamed;
Those who deal treacherously without cause will be ashamed.

(Psa 25:5) Lead me in Thy truth and teach me, For Thou art the God of my salvation;
For Thee I wait all the day.

(Psa 37:7) Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him;
Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way,
Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.

(Psa 52:9) I will give Thee thanks forever, because Thou hast done it,
And I will wait on Thy name, for it is good, in the presence of Thy godly ones.

(Isa 40:31) Yet those who wait for the LORD Will gain new strength;
They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired,
They will walk and not become weary.

(Lam 3:25) The LORD is good to those who wait for Him,
To the person who seeks Him.

(Phil 3:20) For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;...

See you Sunday!

-gls