

You know the old saying "the only thing that is constant in life is change." While this statement seems to be a paradox it is true! As we go through life much changes. We see changes in governments and their leaders. We see changes in people as they age, move, and take on different careers. We see rapid change in newborns as they grow and mature. And we even see change in the church. Some of these changes are good, and some are some bad.

I believe that change can be a good thing. Fact is that if you are not changing you might be dead! People who do not learn to adapt and change may find themselves ill prepared for an ever-changing world.

Of course there are some things that do not change. God's eternal nature does not change--and that is a good thing! His word is everlasting and does not change. But the One who does not change demands that we do!

Christians begin as spiritual babies. They have so much to learn. We, as older more mature saints, have a vital role in their changing process. We want to help them to grow up into all aspects of Christ (Eph. 4:15). It is my prayer that one of the unchanging things in your life is the fact that you are ever changing into the likeness of Jesus. May others see in you an unchanging commitment to go from the old carnal life of sin, into the new spiritual life of righteousness.

Change doesn't always come easy; there is a price to be paid by those who pursue it. But the rewards are far greater. Make the necessary changes in your life to help you have a closer walk with the Lord. Such a constant will be a change you won't want to do without.

See you Sunday!
